

The Egg Clip 6

Solon: Luke, we should go inside, eh?

Luke: Go inside?

S: Yes, we should go inside...

L: Go inside where?

S: Inside the egg, Luke.

L: Egg? What egg?

S: But can't you see them? Aren't they fine? They are all inside the egg..., inside the system, Luke...

L: Are they all inside the egg?

S: Aha, inside. And they have everything, Luke, eh...; they have chicken, they have pasta and salads, Luke.

L: And beers...

S: It's till you go inside, eh... After that, you get used to it.

L: Ah, you get used to it...

S: Of course, you get used to it. Don't worry how you are going to get inside, Luke...; it's just a shell...; after that, no wanderings, no parks, no anxieties. You have but to make a choice. Either inside or outside the egg, baby, eh? It's done... it's decided... Come on... come on, let's go, eh... We have to think about it... I have good reasons, let's go!

L: No, Solon, I'd rather not have it.

S: You want everything your way, Luke, everything. A bit of adapting, some socializing... that's it, it's done. House, office, job...

L: Yes, job, office, house, setting money aside, visitors..."How are you? How have you been doing?"

S: In short, eh?

L: Yes! Flattery, dusting, the weather, the pollution...

S: Law-abiding... at last, Luke.

L: Tell me, Solon..., in the egg... can we both fit in the egg?

S: No, Luke.

L: No?

S: We'll be alone, Luke. Each one will have his own egg, Luke. Alone. But inside it we'll have it all. Air-conditioning, TV, gardens... but alone, Luke.

L: No, Solon..., I don't want to be alone.

S: You mean, we shouldn't get in?

L: No.

S: It's done, Luke.

L: Yes... no, we shouldn't get in, Solon; as long as we can take it... we shouldn't get in.

S: But you want everything..., you crave everything, Luke.

L: I'll be frugal...; we shouldn't get in; outside... as long as we can take it.

S: Is that it, Luke, as long as we can take it, eh? As long as we can? In life, Luke.

L: Yes.

S: Outside... in the rain, Luke, outside.

L: Outside, yes.

S: As long as we can.

L: As long as we can, yes.
